BY GOVERNMENT PLEADER SRI. I.V. PRAMOD

THIS WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 07/08/2007, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

S. SIRI JAGAN, J.

W.P.(C)NO. 24008 OF 2007

DATED THIS THE 7th DAY OF AUGUST, 2007

JUDGMENT

The petitioner alleges that she is an absentee landlord in respect of certain properties from which, on inspection, she found that mining and excavation of clay have been done. The petitioner approached respondents 2 and 3 to get details as to whether any mining permit has been issued to anybody in respect of the property. Having failed to get any response from respondents 2 and 3, the petitioner approached the 1st respondent with Ext.P1 petition. The petitioner now seeks a direction to the 1st respondent to consider and pass appropriate orders on Ext.P1.

2. I have heard the learned Government pleader also. In the facts and circumstances of the case, there would be a direction to the 1st respondent to consider and pass orders on Ext.P1 as expeditiously as possible, at any rate, within two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment. It would be open to the petitioner to move for interim orders also before the 1st respondent, who shall consider the same.

The writ petition is disposed of as above.
